Black Dot Policy – BIT Jaipur

- The Black Dot Policy is a disciplinary system implemented to maintain discipline, responsibility, and ethical conduct among students at BIT Jaipur. Black dots may be awarded to students found violating the Code of Conduct, institutional regulations, hostel rules, or engaging in acts of indiscipline. All black dots are cumulative in nature and form part of the student's disciplinary record.
    1. A student awarded one Black Dot shall receive a strict warning from the college authorities.
    2. A student awarded two Black Dots shall receive a strict warning and may be barred from participating in student activities, clubs, societies, cultural events, sports activities, and other extracurricular programs organized by the institute.
    3. A student awarded three Black Dots shall receive a strict warning and may be debarred from participating in campus placement and recruitment activities conducted by the institute.
    4. A student awarded four Black Dots may face a semester back of one to two years, in addition to other disciplinary measures deemed appropriate by the disciplinary committee.
    5. A student awarded five Black Dots shall be liable for permanent expulsion from BIT Jaipur.
- The institute reserves the right to inform parents or guardians regarding acts of indiscipline and the award of black dots. Depending upon the severity of the offense, the disciplinary committee may also impose additional penalties such as fines, recovery of damages, suspension from hostel facilities, suspension from academic or extracurricular activities, rustication, or expulsion.
- Serious offenses including ragging, physical assault, vandalism, substance abuse, cyber misconduct, harassment, possession of prohibited substances, or any act that threatens the safety, security, reputation, or functioning of the institute may attract immediate disciplinary action irrespective of the number of black dots previously awarded.
- All students are expected to maintain the highest standards of discipline, integrity, and conduct and uphold the reputation and values of BIT Jaipur at all times.
